

Invitation

to the Local Chapter Graz Main Event:

“How to communicate (Neuro-)Science”

powered by ANA and INGE St.

- Neuroscience receives increasing attention by the media
- Communicating (Neuro-) Science accurately and in an engaging manner is crucial not only for individual Scientists but also for the prospects of Science in general

We invite you to learn and discuss, how to best communicate (Neuro-) Science with a distinguished Science Journalist and a leading Neuroscientist

WHEN AND WHERE?

Date Friday, February 16, 2018
Time 5 pm (s.t.)
Location Meerscheinschlössl, Mozartgasse 3, 8010 Graz

AGENDA

17:00 Opening / Welcome
(20 min) Sigismund Huck, ANA President
Christian Enzinger, INGE St. President

17:20 NEUROIMAGING & PRECISION MEDICINE – Research from brain scanner to bedside
(40 min) Rupert Lanzenberger
Team Leader, NEUROIMAGING LABS (NIL) - PET, MRI, EEG & Chemical Lab
Department of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Medical University Vienna

Break (10 min)

18:10 How to communicate (Neuro-) Science
(50 min) Birgit Dalheimer
Science Editor, Ö1 (ORF - Austrian Broadcasting Corporation), Vienna

19:00 Buffet & Drinks
(open end)

No registration required, but in order to facilitate planning, please show your interest to Magdalena Temmel (magdalena.temmel@edu.uni-graz.at) or Geraldine Zenz (geraldine.zenz@medunigraz.at) until Monday, February 12, 2018